FATALLY INJURED.

Michael J. Connell Has Neck Broken Mill Car Jumps the Track

accident resulting in fatal inles to Michael J. Connell took ce in the yard of the American company's plant in this city Wednesday morning about eleven o'clock. Mr. Connell lived at 192 Jackson street, was a native of Ireland, but for several years had been employed by the company as a train hand on the narrow railroad in the company's yards and was a faithful workman, well liked by his fellow employees and acquaintances.

Connell was riding on one of three cars which were running on the slight grade south of the No. 4 mill of the company, when the car jump-ed the track, causing him to fall. He struck between two of the cars, and car following, which was loaded, sed over his body, crushing him bly. Both arms and his neck broken and his skull crushed.

The unfortunate man was hurried Bt. Joseph's hospital with the ina passing team, but died at the institution before his family could get to his side. Dr. L. I. Nason, medical evaminer for the town, was called and pronounced it a case of accidental death. Permission was given for the removal of the body.

The deceased is survived by his wife, Mary, three brothers, James of Children Who Are Sickly TOWN PHYSICIAN'S APPOINT the Windham High school is ill with the mumps at ther home of her par-ents at Mansfield Depot. MENT.

Seems to Please the Public Better Than It Does the Doctors.

The appointment of a town physi cian has created considerable discus-sion and some complications in Wind-ham. It is said that the physicians as a whole are opposed to work of this kind, which they claim is contract work, and outside of ethics of the pro-fession. On the other hand, the public seems to feel that the selectmen did a fine stroke of business when they obtained a physician to do all they obtained a physician to do all the work among the town poor for a sum less for a year than the town had been paying the individual doctors in some months. These people say that the doctors had not hesitated to get the town to pay all their doubtful hills, and should not kick of the town does away with that large item of exdoes away with that large item of ex-

The selectmen have found that things are not running smoothly in some regards, and the other physicians are not so anxious to have ja-tients taken to the hospital as they were when the town paid all the bills. No one is blaming the institution, but society held a meeting some time Tuesday night or Wednesday morning and appointed a committee consisting of Dr. F. E. Guild, Dr. L. I. Nason and Dr. C. E. Simonds to investigate the matter of contract work by the members of the society. This report has not been authoritatively confirm-ed by the doctors, although Dr. L. I. Nason, when questioned Wednesday, did not deny the story. He said: "We feel that this is a matter of private business, which is not of public concern, and I cannot, of course, say anything.

Storrs Autobus and Beebe Car Collide.

The Storrs autobus and an auto-mobile owned by H. V. Beebe figured in a collision just over the city line in Mansfield Wednesday morning, in which the bus lost a wheel and the smaller car received damages to the radiator, steering wheel and engine one of the ten passengers were in-

Both cars were coming to this city In the autobus was President C. I. Beach of the Conecticut Agricultural College and several members of the faculty. The Beebe car, which was in the rear, attempted to pass the bus, when part of the steering geer of the latter gave way and the machine veer-ed to the left, running into the smaller car and driving it against a tree.

TEACH HOUSEHOLD ARTS. Principal Burr Makes Suggestions Before School Board.

At the regular meeting of the school board Wednesday evening Principal H. T. Burr appeared in favor of the teachhousehold art in the grade schools. He suggested the teacher now employed at the state normal school could take care of the sewing, and that cooking might be taught the upper grades after school hours or on Saturdays. He also suggested that these subjects might be taught at the clans are not smoothing the road of the newly appointed town physician any more than they can help.

The latest report is that the medical society held a meeting some time.

Tuesday night or well as the medical society held a meeting some time. that a playground association was in prospect which would take care of the expenses. George F. Elliott and C. Case were appointed a committee to in-vestigate both of these matters and report at the next meeting. The only other important business transacted at he meeting was the acceptance of a $20 minimum rate for the electric meer at the high school as proposed by he electric company.

With Revolver in His Pocket. Edward R. Collins was arrested at 11.30 Wednesday evening on the chearge of carrying concealed weapons. The police had received word that Collins had the gun in his pocket and Lieutenant Killourey went out to look for him. He found him on Main street with a .32 calibre revolver in his pock-et. Collins is an ex-prizefighter and a former member of Co. L.
